Alexandria Hartwell ’17
Managerial Economics
Oakland, Calif.

Alexandria gained leadership and management skills as a resident advisor for the African American and African Living-Learning Community in the residence halls. She also relishes her life-changing experience studying abroad in Paris, where she immersed herself in fashion marketing. “The world is for everyone; if you have the opportunity to go somewhere, do it!”
Aggies embrace new opportunities and make connections that last. We play together, we study together and we achieve together. Hangout spots like the Quad, the “CoHo” (Coffee House), the Student Community Center and the UC Davis Arboretum buzz with activity. Cultural events, poetry slams, house concerts, award-winning sports teams and Greek life organizations are just a few of the ways to find your community at UC Davis.

Karli Quintana ’17
Electrical Engineering
Tracy, Calif.
Transferred from Modesto Junior College

As a student coordinator at the UC Davis Cross Cultural Center, Karli immersed herself in planning Native American Culture Days and the annual Powwow. “This campus has such an awesome variety of inclusive communities; you can’t help but find a place here.” She plans a career in the semi-conductor engineering industry, and she hopes to make technology more accessible to all communities.
Our friendly, welcoming college town—where students make up about half the population—embraces your uniqueness. Just a few blocks from campus, downtown Davis comes alive with music, laughter, food and friends. Pedal to class, to the gym, to the movies—or take advantage of our student-run bus system that is free for students.

As a search and rescue team member with the California Air National Guard and a prior service Marine, Jessica plans on a career in public service. At UC Davis, she became a strong advocate for fellow veterans through her work at the Veterans Success Center. “If every student utilized all the resources available to them at UC Davis, they would inevitably find success.”
Get around town.
Davis is bike-friendly, and the abundant public transportation will take you around Davis or to Sacramento, San Francisco, Lake Tahoe and other nearby destinations.

OUTCOMES

ACHIEVE GREATNESS
Juan Ramirez ’17
Clinical Nutrition
Los Angeles, Calif.

A first-generation college student, Juan believes in the power of healthy eating. When he’s not helping students navigate to graduation as a peer advisor, he interns locally to promote nutritious, culturally relevant diets to underserved communities. “One of the best ways to give back is through nutrition. If you are healthy, you are capable of so much more.” Juan plans to become a registered dietitian.
