

“UC Davis is a top academic university with a lot of resources and opportunities. The professors are really helpful and get excited about helping students excel. There are a lot of international students in Davis, so you can easily find people who understand you and where you come from.”

UC DAVIS

ABOUT UC DAVIS

UC Davis is located in the city of Davis, California, in the western United States. Davis is a friendly and welcoming college town where students make up about half of the population. Downtown is just a few blocks from campus and is a popular place for students to explore.

Out of our more than 29,400 undergraduates, over 3,500 are international students. UC Davis also attracts graduate students from around the world to our 90+ graduate programs and professional schools, including business, education, law medicine, nursing and veterinary medicine. There are more than 100 countries represented in the UC Davis student community.
