

“Having a sense of community made Davis feel like home, and it gave me the confidence to branch out and meet people from so many other communities.”

WHY UC DAVIS?

“My dad graduated from UC Davis, and growing up he always talked about how strong the community was here. I wanted to follow in his footsteps. I knew Davis would be a perfect place to achieve both my academic and personal goals.”

WHAT WAS YOUR MOST MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE AT UC DAVIS?

“I ran for Senate in our student government. It was difficult to put myself out there and convince people to vote for me, but I received an abundance of support from friends and the Muslim community. We all help one another achieve our goals. It's really amazing to be part of such a strong and uplifting community.”
