About UC Davis

UC Davis is rooted in the City of Davis — California's College Town — in Northern California. Our welcoming campus is laid back, green, bike friendly, located in the middle of everywhere, near major travel hubs and exciting career opportunities. At UC Davis, you'll find a community dedicated to helping you grow academically and personally as you discover what's possible for your future.

Admission requirements

UC Davis considers applications through a holistic review process. Obtain a high school diploma (or equivalent) and complete the required A-G courses to qualify for review.
