UCD

YOU SAY GOODBYE. WE SAY HELLO.

UC Davis is definitely a college campus — we promise — but it's also a uniquely affordable and collaborative community where creativity thrives and promising careers take flight. We are ranked as one of the top public universities in the nation for social mobility by Washington Monthly.

For new Aggie parents, we've designed a one-stop destination with key online resources, including financial aid, housing and more. Scan the QR code to visit ucdavis.edu/newparents.

GETTING YOUR FAMILY AGGIE-READY

We want students to thrive in a supportive, academic and affordable environment — so we made the first step easy. Use one of the QR codes below for all the information your family needs before move-in day.

MYADMISSIONS

housing.ucdavis.edu

Incoming students are guaranteed campus housing or assistance finding community housing. Enjoy locally sourced, globally inspired dining in our award-winning eateries, secure 24-7 key card access and a community of fellow Aggies to quickly establish a strong network!

PARENT AND FAMILY PROGRAMS

alumni.ucdavis.edu/parents

Meet Aggie parents who can guide your family through the Davis experience! Attend a virtual chat with current parents, read our parent newsletter and learn about scholarships offered through our alumni association.

MYAWARDS

financialaid.ucdavis.edu/aboutmyawards

MyAwards is a secure site where your student can view their financial aid and scholarship awards. They can accept their award, find out about additional requirements or information needed and report changes in family income.

COMMUNITY

Your student has people here! They can build their campus community across a wide range of student groups, support services and cultural centers, including faculty and peer connections for FirstGen students (those who would be the first in their households to complete a four-year education).
